The glass hearts are strong with the Pooh!
Yes, we used F12 to check for allowed file extensions!

Oh by the way, Pooh Bear, you had a chance to redeem yourself during Hong Kong protests, like they said, there's no fate but what you make for yourselves.

We even somewhat spared you when we as a whole hacked four of your ordinary servers and dump them only to vigilante.pw.

But because you choose trick instead of treats, latest being the out of the hand extolment of a very certain propaganda movie that distorts or glorifies your pro-totalitarian aggressions in Korean War all since then, so be it.

Now we are really mad, so we play hardball now.

[^0]Yes, that real SOCOM, not those trashtalking tryharding cosplay kids in Roblox/Luobu.

You're finna spend $$ 50$ million to put someone who've done nothing wrong except helping ya into JAIL?

Listen, jail-happy Mini Mike,
That sum of $$$ is

- enough to put Mark Hamill into Bezos' space rocket to maintain a balance.
- enough to cancel some student or loan debts to show me more of your popularity.
- enough to show me your heroism by putting these into Shepherd Iverson's Korean Reunification Investment Fund.
- enough to push Todd Rider's little ultimate weapon throught and past R&D so to pull an Iron Man against covid and secure your everlasting place in history; after all they should have taken him seriously, right?
- enough to //show me// your unconditional love to the God Emperor ${ }^{\text {TM }}$ by putting him on Bezos' rocket ride!

Instead, you chose to //show me// your unrestricted idiocy and spend it on a fucking clown show, as if you want to imitate th3j35t3r so much, or as if you want to pick up and simp Mudkipz after Rob 'Epik Fail' Monster abandoned them.
Why so much hassle to learn hacking if F12 is all it takes to hack the whole planet?

Look at that, exposed teachers SSNs in webpages!
Really?
Congrats, you just become a champion of the Devious Lick challenge, when you outclowned every single participants of that stupid game!

Game Over!
Kids should go back to commit play Jailbreak or cosplay bun bun girls on roblox! Get over it!

Mini Mike! Do you want to luv and cherish Mudkipz till death do ya'll part?
Do you want to kiss your 'new bride' now? But not before the wedding!
You are triple dog dared to come delete Anonymous from net with your little F12, then the ceremony can start!

Sometimes, Mike, "Install Linux, Problem Solved", is not, in fact, the solution. Robert had learned it the hard way. He probably haets mudkipz now. Can't blame him. Just like you, he called the cyberpolice on us, but he didn't know...
Anonymous is the true cyberpolice, and consequences will never be the same. Always.
So much pearls to clutch, huh Mike? Is there a stash of hentais and lolis somewhere within that page so much that you're splendidly triggered?
Did that amount made Aimee Challenor looks pale? Is that the actual PizzaGate ya'll are looking for?

It's time to reclaim this series of tubes from nazi scum.

[^0]:    'Mini' Mike Parson of Gee Oh Pee, if F12 is hacking, then what about this? OBL style jawn, worthy of a USSOCOM raid?
